INSTITUT FÜR INNOVATION MANAGEMENT (IIM)
MUNICH SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT
FAKULTÄT FÜR BETRIEBSWIRTSCHAFT

Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München (LMU) is one of the largest and most prestigious universities in Germany. The Institute for Innovation Management (IIM) at the Munich School of Management seeks to fill a position for a

Research Assistant with Teaching Tasks (m/f)
(Standard German pay scale, TV/L 13; Part-Time 50%)

The position is for one year and is to be filled at the earliest possible date.

Our Team

The Institute for Innovation Management (IIM) at the Munich School of Management, LMU Munich, conducts academically-rigorous and practically-relevant research and teaching in the domain of innovation management, building on our principal tenets of interdisciplinarity and multimethodology. We present our research at international conferences and publish in leading journals.

Your Profile

You hold a superior academic record and Master's degree or equivalent in Healthcare Management, Business Administration, Economics, Management, Marketing, Psychology, or a field related to innovation management. You have experience with experimental design and analysis and are proficient in working with large datasets and conducting statistical analyses.

You add to our team strong organizational skills, are proactive, able to work both independently and collaboratively, and possess excellent English communication skills (written and oral).

How to Apply

Please send your application with the following documents electronically to the below address:

- Statement of motivation (max. one page, single-spaced)
- Up-to-date CV
- Copies of diplomas and transcripts
- Other relevant materials (e.g., examples of empirical research conducted)

Application materials should be submitted as one single PDF file and no later than September 15, 2018. In the case of essentially equal qualification, applicants with impairments will be given preference. We encourage women to apply. The option of part-time employment is available in principle.
